Message from the House

Hall of the House of Representatives
Austin, Texas,
March 22, 1965.

Hon. Preston Smith, President of the Senate

Sir: I am directed by the House to inform the Senate that the House has passed the following:

The House has concurred in Senate amendments to House Bill No. 3 by non-record vote.

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY HALLMAN,
Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

Senate Joint Resolution 41 on Second Reading

On motion of Senator Moore and by unanimous consent, the regular order of business was suspended to take up for consideration at this time on its second reading and passage to engrossment:

S. J. R. No. 41, Proposing an amendment to Sections 2 and 3 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas so as to provide for an increase in the membership of the State Senate from thirty-one (31) to thirty-nine (39) members and providing for their election in 1966 and thereafter; providing for the necessary election on the proposed amendment, form of ballot, proclamation, and publication.

The resolution was read second time.

Senator Crump offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Senate Joint Resolution 41 is hereby amended by striking all below the resolving clause and substituting therefor the following:

"Section 1. That Sections 2 and 3 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended to read respectively as follows:

"Section 2. Membership of Senate and House of Representatives. The Senate shall consist of thirty-nine (39) members, and shall never be increased above this number; provided, however, that a new Senate shall be chosen after every apportionment. The House of Representatives shall consist of ninety-three (93) members until the first apportionment after the adoption of this Constitution, when or at any apportionment thereafter, the number of Representatives may be increased by the Legislature, upon the ratio of not more than one Representative for every fifteen thousand inhabitants; provided, the number of Representatives shall never exceed one hundred and fifty."

"Section 3. Elections and term of office of Senators. The Senators shall be chosen by the qualified electors for the term of six years; but a new Senate shall be chosen after every apportionment, and the Senators elected after each apportionment shall be divided by lot into three classes. The seats of the Senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the first two years, those of the second class at the expiration of four years and those of the third class at the expiration of six years, so that one-third of the Senators shall be chosen biennially thereafter, provided, however, that should the people adopt this amendment at an election prior to the general election of 1966, thirteen of the fifteen Senators who are holding office at the time of the adoption of this amendment and who were elected in 1964 shall remain in office and be the incumbent Senators from new districts as provided by law, and the said incumbent Senators shall not be required to draw lots following the election of 1966, but shall serve in office until 1970. The remaining two Senators of those elected in 1964 and eleven of the sixteen Senators who are holding office at the time of adoption of this amendment and who were elected in 1962 and were not required to seek election in 1964 shall remain in office and be the incumbent Senators from new districts as provided by law and the said incumbent Senators shall not be required to draw lots following the election of 1966, but shall serve in office until 1968. The determination of which Senatorial Districts served by incumbent Senators upon the adoption of this amendment shall be filled by election in 1966, 1968, and 1970 shall, subject to the provisions of this amendment, be determined by the enabling legislation passed to effectuate this amendment. The thirteen Senators chosen by the election of 1966 shall serve for the full term of six years provided by this amendment.'

"Section 2. That Section 33 of Article III of the Constitution be amended to read as follows:

"Section 33. All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives, but the Senate may amend or reject them as other bills, provided that such bills shall not be finally passed except on the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the membership of the Senate.'

"Section 3. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the state at an election to be held on the 24th day of July, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas so as to provide for an increase in the membership of the State Senate from thirty-one (31) to thirty-nine (39) members, providing for terms, and that revenue raising bills shall require a two-thirds vote of such membership.'

"AGAINST the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas so as to provide for an increase in the membership of the State Senate from thirty-one (31) to thirty-nine (39) members, providing for terms, and that revenue raising bills shall require a two-thirds vote of such membership.'

"Section 4. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and Laws of this state."

The amendment was read.

Senator Spears raised the Point of Order that the amendment by Senator

Crump was not germane to the resolution.

The President sustained the Point of Order.

Senator Cole offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend quoted Section 3 of Section I of S. J. R. 41 by changing the comma after the word "thereafter" in line 50 of the committee print to a period and striking the remainder of the quoted Section 3.

The amendment was read.

Senator Moore moved to table the amendment.

Question on the motion to table the amendment, Yeas and Nays were demanded.

The amendment was tabled by the following vote:

Yeas—25

Blanchard	Krueger
Calhoun	Moore
Colson	Ratliff
Creighton	Reagan

Herring	Strong
Hightower	Watson
Kazen	Word
Kennard

Nays—6

Aikin	Harrington
Bates	Parkhouse
Cole	Patman

Senator Crump offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend Sec. 2 of S. J. R. No. 41 by striking out the words "7th day of August, 1965" and inserting in lieu thereof "24th day of July, 1965."

The amendment was read and was adopted.

Senator Calhoun offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend S. J. R. 41 quoted Sec. 2 of Sec. 1 by striking out all of the second sentence beginning with the word "The" on line 34 and ending with the word "fifty" on line 41 and adding the following:

"The House of Representatives shall consist of one hundred fifty (150) members."

HARDEMAN
CALHOUN

The amendment was read and was adopted.

Senator Hardeman offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend S. J. R. 41 by adding a new section to be known as "Section 1a," to read as follows:

"Section 1a. That Section 25 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended to hereafter read as follows:

'Section 25. The State shall be divided into Senatorial Districts of contiguous territory according to the number of qualified electors, as nearly as may be, and each district shall be entitled to elect one Senator.'

The amendment was read and was adopted.

On motion of Senator Hardeman and by unanimous consent the caption was amended to conform to the body of the resolution as amended.

The resolution as amended was passed to engrossment.

Senate Joint Resolution 41 on on Third Reading

Senator Moore moved that the Constitutional Rule and Senate Rule 32 requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that S. J. R. No. 41 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote:

Yeas—29

The President signed in the presence of the Senate after the captions had been read, the following enrolled bills:

H. B. No. 476, Authorizing the Board of Regents of State Teachers Colleges to lease certain land to the U. S. Forest Service.

S. B. No. 130, A bill to be entitled "An Act concerning the prevention, control and eradication of the disease of tuberculosis; imposing certain responsibilities and duties upon the State Board of Health, the Commissioner of Health and other State officials relating thereto; transferring the custody, maintenance, operation and control of the State tuberculosis hospitals from the State Board for Hospitals and Special Schools to the State Board of Health, and making other provisions relating thereto; etc.; and declaring an emergency."

Presentation of Guests

Senator Dies by unanimous consent presented Mrs. Abraham Kazen, Jr., the lovely wife of Senator Kazen, and her guest, Mrs. Darrell Royal, as guests of the Senate today.

Message From the House

Hall of the House of Representatives
Austin, Texas,
March 22, 1965.

Hon. Preston Smith, President of the Senate.

Sir: I am directed by the House to inform the Senate that the House has passed the following:

S. B. No. 334, A bill to be entitled "An Act relating to the creation, administration, powers, and duties, and financing of the Matagorda County Hospital District of Matagorda County, Texas; and declaring an emergency."

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY HALLMAN,
Chief Clerk House of Representatives

Senate Bill 289 With House Amendment

Senator Rogers called S. B. No. 289 from the President's table for consideration of the House amendment to the bill.

The President laid the bill and the following House amendment before the Senate:

Committee Amendment No. 1

Amend Senate Bill No. 289 by striking the figure $25 from the last paragraph of Section 1 thereof and substituting in lieu therefor the figure $10.00.

The amendment was read.

Senator Rogers moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendment, but that a Conference Committee be appointed to adjust the differences between the two Houses on the bill.

The motion prevailed.

Accordingly, the President announced the appointment of the following conferees on the part of the Senate on the bill: Senators Rogers, Hardeman, Hightower, Patman and Bates.

Recess

On motion of Senator Aikin the Senate at 12:05 o'clock p.m. took recess until 2:00 o'clock p.m. today.

After Recess

The President called the Senate to order at 2:00 o'clock p. m. today.

Senate Bill 160 on Third Reading

Senator Hall moved to call from the Journal Senate Bill No. 160 on which the vote on final passage was reconsidered on Wednesday, March 17, 1965, and the motion was spread on the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Question—Shall S. B. No. 160 be finally passed?

Senator Hall offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend Senate Bill Number 160 by striking all below the enacting clause and substituting the following:

Section 1. The purpose of this Act is to provide that East Texas State College and West Texas State University shall each be conducted, operated and maintained under the general direction and supervision of new and separate Boards of Regents as herein provided.

Sec. 2. The organization, control and management of East Texas State College shall be vested in a Board of Regents of East Texas State College and the organization, control and management of West Texas State University shall be vested in a Board of Regents of West Texas State University. Each of the Boards shall be composed of nine (9) members who shall be appointed by the Governor of Texas and confirmed by the Senate. Not more than four (4) members of each Board of Regents shall be appointed from or be a resident of any one (1) State Senatorial District and not more than two (2) members of each board may be a resident of the county in which the college or university is located. Three (3) members of the first Board of Regents of East Texas State College and three (3) members of the first Board of Regents of West Texas State University appointed under this Act shall be designated by the Governor to serve for two (2) years, three (3) for four (4) years, and three (3) for six (6) years, and the members appointed thereafter shall serve for six (6) years. The members of the Boards shall be removable by the Governor for inefficiency or malfeasance of office. Any vacancy that may occur on each Board shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the Governor. Each member of each Board shall be required to take the Constitutional oath of office before entering upon the duties of his office. The first meeting of each Board shall be held at a time and place designated by the Governor. At this meeting each Board shall organize by electing a chairman, and such other officers as it may deem necessary. Thereafter, the chairman of each Board shall convene the Board of Regents to consider any business connected with the College or University whenever he deems it expedient.

Sec. 3. On the effective date of this Act, the management and control of the East Texas State College as now vested in the Board of Regents of the Texas State Teachers' Colleges shall be withdrawn of this Board, and shall be vested in the newly created Board of Regents of East Texas State College, as provided herein. All powers, duties, rights, obligations and functions of the Board of Regents of the State Teachers' Colleges as these relate to East Texas State College shall be vested in and/or performed by the Board of Regents of East Texas State College to be executed and administered by said Board under the provisions of this Act and the laws of Texas.

Sec. 4. On the effective date of this Act, the management and control of the West Texas State University as now vested in the Board of Regents of the Texas State Teachers' Colleges shall be withdrawn of this Board, and shall be vested in the newly created Board of Regents of West Texas State University, as provided herein. All powers, duties, rights, obligations and functions of the Board of Regents of the State Teachers' Colleges as these relate to West Texas State University shall be vested in and/or performed by the Board of Regents of West Texas State University to be executed and administered by said Board under the provisions of this Act and the laws of Texas.

Sec. 5. Wherever any reference to the Board of Regents of the State Teachers' Colleges insofar as the East Texas State Teachers' College is concerned appears in the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, or in any amendment thereto, or in any Acts heretofore enacted, including the provisions, and all support and benefits provided said college within the provisions of Article VII, Section 17, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, such reference shall on the effective date of this Act, and thereafter, mean and apply to the Board of Regents of the East Texas State College, it being the legislative intent that all powers granted to the Board of Regents of the State Teachers' Colleges, insofar as the East Texas State College is concerned, shall be transferred to the Board of Regents of the East Texas State College.

Sec. 6. Wherever any reference to the Board of Regents of the State Teachers' Colleges insofar as the West Texas State Teachers' College or the West Texas State College is concerned appears in the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, or in any amendment thereto, or in any Acts heretofore enacted, including the provisions, and all support and benefits provided said University or College within the provisions of Article VII, Section 17, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, such reference shall on the effective date of this Act, and thereafter, mean and apply to the Board of Regents of the West Texas State University, it being the legislative intent that all powers granted to the Board of Regents of the State Teachers' Colleges, insofar as the West Texas State University is concerned, shall be transferred to the Board of Regents of the West Texas State University.

Sec. 7. The scope of work and activities of the East Texas State College and the West Texas State University shall be the same as are now being carried on by the existing East Texas State College and West Texas State University, and for which they are authorized, said work and activities to be increased or diminished, altered or changed in any manner deemed by the new Governing Boards to be conducive to the betterment of the services offered, or which may be offered, by such institutions to the people of Texas.

Sec. 8. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are repealed to the extent of such conflict only.

Sec. 9. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendar in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this Rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

The amendment was read and was adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—27
